

Thinking of becoming a childminder?

Are you looking for a rewarding career within the childcare market?

Childminders are often part of a local network of childminders. These networks could offer you lots of support when you are setting up your business.

Many networks meet regularly at toddler groups and outings.

As a childminder you decide which hours of childcare you provide, so you can ensure that other commitments are not affected.

If you are interested then please contact...

Julie Sargeant

julie.sargeant@wokingham.gov.uk /phone 0118 974 6181

or

The Wokingham Borough Council Early Years Team on 0118 908 8260

